From the January 28, 2000 print edition

David Steward

Chairman and chief executive, World Wide Technology Inc.

Founder of a rapidly growing computer business, hard-driving entrepreneur David Steward is the sort of business leader the city hopes to foster. His World Wide Technology Inc. was named the 1999 company of the year by Black Enterprise Magazine. He started business in 1990 as a reseller of computer equipment and then stepped on the gas. The company has grown from a half-million dollars in sales to more than $400 million in business in 1999. That was double the revenue of the previous year with projections for $600 million in 2000.

"It has already happened...it's the Internet. We are going through the greatest revolution that ever hit the world right now. To be part of that revolution is exciting." -- David Steward
