World Wide's Steward named to Civic Progress

David Steward, founder and chief executive of World Wide Technology, was named a member of Civic Progress, an organization of chief executives from leading St. Louis area businesses.

Steward is the only African-American to be an active member of the group, and World Wide Technologies is the first minority-owned enterprise to join the ranks of the member firms, which now numbers 29.

Steward founded World Wide Technology in 1990. In 1999, the company and its majority-owned subsidiary, telcobuy.com, had revenue of $413 million. Revenue in the first half of 2000 is more than double from last year, according to a statement from the firm.
