POLY ROVE FOR RETAIL

Wireless handsets eliminate paging delays, improve operations, and enable faster responses to problems and emergencies, thus reducing downtime and production slippage. Push-to-Talk (PTT) technology replaces “walkie-talkie” systems with similar functionality. The Poly Rove Family is a highly scalable solution that can grow with an organization up to 254 base stations.

For a retail application, you may need to manage up to 20 calls or more at one time. A Poly Rove B2 dual cell solution has you covered.
