New Banking Benefits for World Wide Technology Employees

Coming Soon

Through our relationship with Bank of America, World Wide Technology employees will be offered banking benefits beginning January 2020. Employees with a World Wide Technology payroll direct deposit into an eligible existing or new personal Bank of America® checking or savings account will get a special bundle of no-fee banking services including...

- No Bank of America monthly maintenance fees
- No Bank of America ATM fees. International transaction fees and fees charged by third-party ATM operators still apply
- No Bank of America domestic wire transfer fees

Open an eligible personal Bank of America checking and/or savings account today and have your World Wide Technology payroll direct deposited into that account. You will start to receive benefits on that account 30 to 60 days following the identification of your World Wide Technology payroll direct deposit into your account. Click here to get started!

Look for these great new perks coming soon!
