

Strategic Commitment-Proverbs 3:5-6

While preparing today's devotion, I have been reflecting how blessed WWT has been to grow in spite of the pandemic! From the beginning of the pandemic, the management team committed itself to ensure a safe, productive work environment. Thousands of WWT team members committed themselves to continue serving WWT's global clients with world class service, whether their work required them to be virtual or onsite.

Commitment matters, doesn't it? There was another commitment that began two years ago and that is the WWT friends and family prayer call. More than fifty times, since the beginning of the pandemic, Dave and Thelma have hosted this thirty minute call filled with inspirational music, messages, and prayers. Thousands of friends and family have tuned in during the past two years to be encouraged during some very dark and uncertain times.

Yes, commitment matters, which brings me to our verse from Proverbs 3:5-6: Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.

This type of trust, referenced in the Scripture, goes beyond the intellectual exercise of expecting something to happen. This trust is a much deeper commitment and is based in the heart. It often causes you to go beyond, strategic planning to what I will call strategic committing. Plans change and morph, as they should with new information, but there should be no change in one's commitment to God.

Please join me in prayer:

Heavenly Father, thank you for your commitment to making our paths straight. Throughout the pandemic, you have blessed the extraordinary efforts of thousands of WWT's team members. During that time, the WWT prayer calls have sought to bless you and to encourage all who joined. Help us to acknowledge your sovereignty in all of our work, by committing and submitting to your will with all our heart. I pray this with humble respect for all faiths, in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. AMEN
